

Procurement Development Framework – 2023 update

The Procurement Development Framework is a free-to-use tool that allows you to self-assess your procurement skills, identify training needs and supports your career planning. This note is to make you aware of changes coming in March 2023.

The current contract for hosting the tool ends on 31 March 2023 and data from the tool will not be stored or migrated to the replacement system.

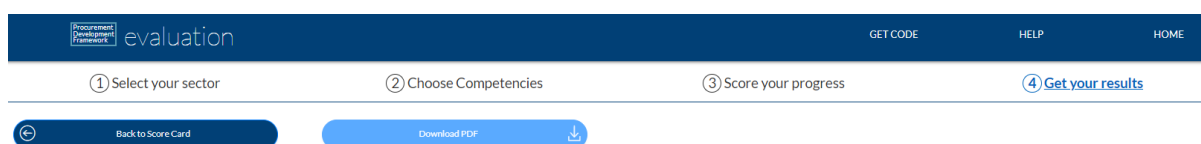

The new Procurement Development Framework tool will replace the existing one in April 2023. The new tool brings improved functionality, allows for multiple scorecards and gives the ability to recover your log-in code if you register an email address with the system.

Access will continue to be through the link on the gov.scot website page:
<https://www.gov.scot/publications/scottish-procurement-competency-framework/>

- Do I need to do anything before the end of March?
If you already have a copy of your scorecard or you do not wish to have a copy then there is nothing that you need to do. You will be able to access the new tool from April 2023 through the page on the gov.scot website.
- How can I export my current scorecard?
If you wish to export your current scorecard then please visit the current tool before 31 March 2023. Go to “Get your results” and email or download your Scorecard in either .csv or Microsoft Excel format.

- How can I export my charts?
If you wish to export your charts then please visit the current tool before 31 March 2023. Go to “Get your results”, select “View charts” and choose “Download PDF”.

- Where can I access the Procurement Development Framework tool, the national procurement competency framework, the linked learning curriculum and the job role bank?
All of these resources are available on the gov.scot webpage linked above.
- Who can I contact about this change?
If you wish to contact the Scottish Government with further questions we would be happy to help. Please email CommercialCapability@gov.scot
